Walter Allen Zorn, 89

Walter A. Zorn, 89, born in Philadelphia, Pa., passed away peacefully in Marco Island, Fla, on March 12, 2015. His parents were Irvin J. Zorn, Sr., and Martha G. Zorn. Mr. Zorn was married to Betty Jane Zorn, (deceased) and later married Lena Bruder. His children are Richard Fulmer of Calif.; Diana Pecinovsky of Massachusetts; and he was predeceased by Drexel Fulmer and Duane Fulmer. His grandchildren include Alina Fulmer and Eric Fulmer of Calif.; Kimberly Pecinovsky of New York; Andrew Pecinovsky, Michelle Pecinovsky (Paul) O'Brien, and Samantha Pecinovsky all of Mass. He was predeceased by a brother, Irvin J. Zorn, Jr., (Jane). His nieces include Barbara Schaffhauser and Carol Johansen. He graduated from East Lansdowne High School, Pa. and Bloomsburg State Teachers College, Pa. He also served in the U.S. Navy and was employed by Liberty Mutual, Boston until he retired. He was a great father, grandfather and uncle and friend to many. He was a very large part of his grandchildren's lives, watching all their sports games, umpiring their softball and baseball games, driving his '65 Chevy Corvair in the Fourth of July parades in Duxbury every year with his grandchildren. He was a believer in everyone. He was loving, sincere and optimistic. He was known for saying, "every day is a good day" and "everything will work out." Everyone who knew him, loved him. He lived life to the fullest, enjoyed boating, was an avid tennis player and even skydived on his 80th birthday. Please join us at a "Celebration of Walter's Life" that will be held on Powder Point Bridge at Duxbury Beach at noon, on Walter's 90th birthday, Friday, April 24. Should you wish, contributions in Walter's name can be made to the American Cancer Society or the American Diabetes Association.
